YOUR GATEWAY TO THE FAROE ISLANDS

AC Tour 1: Panorama Tour to Gjógv 0800-1200hrs

We drive north over the island of Streymoy over the bridge to Eysturoy and along the west side north past the village of Eiði, below the highest mountain in the Faroes, Slættaratindur 882 metres. Proceed to Gjógv with its small natural harbour, a narrow ravine with high cliffs on both sides. Puffins nest nearby on the cliffs. On the way to Gjógv one can see the famous and historical stacks, called the Giant and the Witch. After Gjógv we pass Funningur, where the Vikings first settled and continue – via the mountain road – back to Tórshavn.

Price incl. bus og guide DKK 210,00 per person with min 30 pax

AC Tour 2: Kirkjubøur, the Old Cultural Centre 0900-1200hrs

By bus through Tórshavn over the hills to Kirkjubøur, the island's oldest cultural centre, where you will be introduced to the ruins of the 13th century St. Magnus Cathedral and the 11th century church, still in use. We also visit the 900-year old "Roykstovan", the old bishopric, considered to be the oldest wooden house in Europe. Still occupied by the 17th generation.

Price incl. bus, guide and entrance fee DKK 180,00 per person with min 20 pax - max 90 pax
