A Norwegian, Russian & Saami Council SDWG Project
EALLIN Reindeer Herding Youth

[Image of a person in traditional reindeer herder attire with reindeer in the background]
Vision: ´Eallin´

Pic: EALLIN field visit to Chukchi reindeer herders in Kolyma, Sakha, March 2012. M.Pogodaev/ ICR, 2012
EALLIN FROM SÁPMI TO SAKHA

1 TROMSØ
January 23-26, 2012

2 KOLYMSKOE
March 9-12, 2012

3 KAUTOKEINO
March 22-30, 2012

4 SAINT-PETERSBURG
November 30, 2012

5 JOKKMOKK
February 15-16, 2013
Joint Skype seminar with Yakutsk

6 YAKUTSK
March 15-18, 2013

7 AOLUGUYA
July 26, 2013

8 SALEKHARD
September 26, 2013

9 UMEÅ
January 30 - February 1, 2014

10 KAUTOKEINO
March 24 – 27, 2014

11 LAPONIA
March 28 - 30, 2014

12 KAUTOKEINO
March 31, 2014
Training Future Indigenous Arctic Leaders
Indigenous Reindeer Herding Youth
From the Circumpolar North

Competence & Confidence Building
Lectures, panels, assignments, roleplays, individual coaching
EALLIN - Training of Future Arctic Leaders 2012-2015:
In all, over 160 reindeer herding youth from Norway, Sweden, Finland, Nenets, Yamal, Sakha, Mongolia, China etc. has participated.
In the Presence of HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco

Tromsø, Norway, January 19, 2015

Pre-launch of the EALLIN Executive Summary Report
Pre-launch of the EALLIN Executive Summary Report
In the Presence of HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco
Tromsø, Norway, January 19, 2015

AC family included:
President Aile Javo, SC
SAO Else Berit Eikeland, Norway
Exec Secretary Doug Klassen, SDWG
AIA, AAC and others
Recommendations from the EALLIN youth: ‘For life to be good...’

- Health
- Language
- Arctic development - tools
- New technology
- New economic models
- Predators
- Hunting
- Support of networks