TERMS OF REFERENCE
of the Arctic Council Secretariat

1. Introduction

The Arctic Council was established in 1996 as a high level intergovernmental forum to promote cooperation, coordination and interaction among the Arctic States with the involvement of Arctic indigenous peoples and other Arctic inhabitants. The Arctic Council Chairmanship rotates every two years. The work of the Arctic Council is conducted by the Senior Arctic Officials (hereafter referred to as SAOs) in consultation with Permanent Participants between the Ministerial Meetings.

In order to strengthen the capacity of the Arctic Council it was decided at the 2011 Ministerial meeting in Nuuk to establish a standing Arctic Council Secretariat (hereafter referred to as the ACS). The ACS will enhance the work of the Arctic Council through the establishment of administrative capacity and by providing continuity, institutional memory, operational efficiency, enhanced communication and outreach, exchange of information with other relevant international organizations and to support activities of the Arctic Council.

The scope of the ACS’s work, in addition to the organizational setup and the financial arrangements, are described in these Terms of Reference.

The location of the ACS will be Tromsø, Norway.

In order to further strengthen the work of the Arctic Council and the participation of the Permanent Participants the Arctic Council Indigenous Peoples Secretariat (hereafter referred to as the IPS), as recognized in the Ottawa declaration, will become an entity within the ACS as decided by the Permanent Participants and reaffirmed at the 2015 Ministerial meeting in Iqaluit.

2. Scope

2.1 The ACS shall perform secretarial and administrative service within the framework set forward in these Terms of Reference, and such other functions in support of the Arctic Council that are entrusted to it by the Arctic Council. The ACS’s budget (hereafter referred to as the ACS budget) will be subject to the Financial Rules of the Arctic Council Secretariat (hereafter referred to as the Financial Rules) and any applicable provisions of these Terms of Reference.

2.2 The ACS is to perform the following functions:

i. Administrative and organizational support, including: arranging and servicing meetings as required; transmitting reports to and from Arctic States, Permanent Participants, Working Groups and Task Forces, other subsidiary bodies and Observers; assisting the Chair in drafting meeting documents including final reports; providing services to Permanent Participants and Working Groups without a secretariat; administrative services concerning general correspondence; and archiving of records.

ii. Communication and outreach, including:
- operating the Arctic Council digital media channels, including the main Arctic Council website and web pages for ACAP, EPPR and other subsidiary bodies as requested as well as the Council’s presence on social media platforms;
- facilitating and improving the quality and availability of information on the Arctic Council and sharing this information with the general public and the target audiences in line with the Arctic Council communications strategy;
- responding to expert and information requests and forwarding requests as appropriate to authorized spokespeople according to subject-matter of the inquiry; recording, maintaining and posting, as appropriate, the records of the Arctic Council;
- facilitating the exchange of information among the Arctic States, Permanent Participants and Observers; assisting in representing the Arctic Council in external fora and hosting visitors to the secretariat in consultation with and pursuant to the approval of the Chairmanship; and,
- at the request of SAOs and Permanent Participants, developing and implementing strategic communication and outreach plans and other documents and work closely with the subsidiary bodies to align communication activities under the direct supervision of the Chair.

iii. Finance and Human Resources, including: managing budgets; recruiting staff; contracting for services and related activities; and liaising with the Host Country.

iv. Other services and functions as may be required and directed by the Arctic Council and its Chair.

v. Recognizing that English is the working language of the Arctic Council, the ACS may possess the capability to translate important Arctic Council documents and communications and outreach material to and from the Russian language, but the resources necessary to fund such a capability must be provided outside the ACS budget as established by the Arctic Council.¹

3. The Arctic Council Indigenous Peoples Secretariat (IPS)

3.1 The IPS, as recognized in the Ottawa declaration, is an entity within the ACS with its own Board. The IPS’s budget is separate from the ACS budget and is subject to the Financial Rules. The IPS is to perform the following functions, which shall be carried out within the framework of these Terms of Reference and in accordance with Procedural Guidelines of the Indigenous Peoples Secretariat:

¹ Norway will provide resources necessary for Russian translation.

4.8 The Director will be considered Professional staff under relevant provisions of the Staff Rules.
5. Staff members

5.1 The ACS shall be staffed commensurate to its tasks.

5.2 The Director, in consultation with the SAO Chair, shall appoint Staff members essential for the carrying out of the functions of the ACS. A geographical balance among the Arctic states should be taken into consideration when hiring the Staff members. The Director and other Staff members shall serve in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions in the Staff Rules.

5.3 Should the Director determine that he/she requires a Deputy Director, the Director shall draft a detailed position description with specific duties included, and shall submit it to the SAOs for their consensus agreement. Once the Director selects a candidate, he/she consults with and seeks the advice of the SAOs through the SAO Chair before the appointment is made.

5.4 Appointments for Professional staff members, as defined in the Staff Rules, shall be offered for a period of up to four years, with a six month probation period, and with the possibility of prolongation for up to four years if in the interest of the Arctic Council. SAOs may decide, in exceptional circumstances and upon request by the Director, to approve a proposal to extend the contract of a Professional staff member for a period of up to two years in order to secure the ACS’s operational requirements.

5.5 General staff members, as defined in the Staff Rules, shall as a main rule not be given or offered fixed term contracts.

5.6 The ACS may host secondments from Arctic States. Acceptance of seconded personnel is subject to the condition that the sending government, regional administration or sponsoring institution covers all the expenses except the use of office facilities, which are covered by the ACS. Seconded personnel are considered legally employed by the sending entity.

5.7 Internships may be offered to young professionals or other individuals, in particular from Permanent Participants.

6. Legal personality of the ACS

6.1 The legal personality of the ACS in the Kingdom of Norway and the privileges and immunities necessary for the exercise of the functions of the ACS and its Staff members and their families shall be defined and provided for in the Host Country Agreement.

7. Budget

7.1 The ACS budget will cover the operating costs of the ACS, including inter alia, salaries, travel costs, website related costs and, if applicable, the costs of the Permanent Participant intern(s) and is to be established and be determined every second year by the Ministerial meeting. Other costs are to be borne by the Chair as per current practice and the Rules of Procedure, including rooms rented for meetings and interpretation at meetings of SAOs, Deputy Ministers and Ministers.
7.2 The Host Country contribution shall be 42.5% of the ACS budget and this contribution shall at no time exceed USD 739,130 unless otherwise agreed to by the Arctic States. The balance of the ACS budget will be shared equally by all Arctic States and shall at no time exceed USD 1 million unless otherwise agreed to by the Arctic States. Costs of secondments by Arctic States will be provided outside the ACS budget. In addition to contributions to the ACS budget, an Arctic State may make additional contributions to support approved functions of the ACS.

7.3 Funding for operations of the IPS shall not be covered by the ACS budget.

8. Amendments to these Terms of Reference

8.1 The Terms of Reference may be amended by decision of the SAOs.

8.2 The overall operation of the ACS will be reviewed, unless otherwise decided by the SAOs, after 6 years from the date it is operational.
