

PATHWAYS

The Arctic Council launches its biennial magazine

FACTSHEET

MAY 2021

This 128-page magazine introduces the people, projects and international cooperation efforts that make the Arctic Council so successful. In this special 25th anniversary edition, we also take a look back at the founding of the Council with the people who made it possible.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THIS ISSUE

LETTERS

Iceland's Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Russian Federation's Ambassador at Large for Arctic Cooperation introduce Pathways

MARINE ENVIRONMENT

Tackling marine plastics, the Blue Bioeconomy, risk and rescue, sustainable tourism and the future of Arctic shipping

THE ARCTIC COUNCIL TURNS 25

Reflecting on the past and future of a globally unique forum

POLLUTANTS

Empowering communities to address waste, monitoring mercury, the threats of persistent pollutants and preparing for radiation risks

PEOPLE AND COMMUNITIES

Opportunities for Arctic youth, achieving gender equality, revitalizing languages, food security, promoting physical and mental health

BIODIVERSITY

The Arctic Migratory Birds Initiative and assessing the state of terrestrial biodiversity

CLIMATE AND ENERGY

Green energy, cooperation on research and wildfires, Arctic observing and climate resilience

QUICK FACTS

PUBLISHED

May 2021

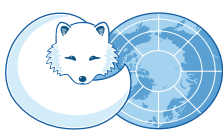

PUBLISHING SCHEDULE

Every 2 years, coinciding with the Arctic Council Ministerial

GET PATHWAYS

Download or read online
arctic-council.org/pathways

Order a printed copy
media@arctic-council.org

ARCTIC COUNCIL

Did a specific project or initiative catch your attention? Get in touch and we are happy to provide more background information and potential interview opportunities.

media@arctic-council.org